The Sentence That Holds You

Reflection Card — Element One: Resilience

“Every hard thing that has come for you has not had the final word. That is evidence of your resilience.”

A NOTE ON THE WORD GRIEF

In this course, grief means any significant loss or setback — not only bereavement. It arrives through divorce, retrenchment, a diagnosis, a door that closed, a future that isn’t coming. However yours arrived, it counts here.

THREE HARD THINGS I HAVE ALREADY SURVIVED

Evidence, not achievements. You are here, reading these words — that is proof each one bent you without breaking you.

MY ONE SENTENCE

Maher’s was: “I surrender to God’s will.” Find the sentence that holds you. Draft it here — it is allowed to change later.
