What This Asks of Me

Reflection Card — Step Two: Reflect

“Reflection is not journaling over a cup of tea. It is the disciplined practice of letting experience become wisdom.”

A NOTE ON THE WORD GRIEF

In this course, grief means any significant loss or setback — not only bereavement. It arrives through divorce, retrenchment, a diagnosis, a door that closed, a future that isn’t coming. However yours arrived, it counts here.

THE ONE QUESTION

Ask one question, not many. Not “why did this happen”, not “what did I do to deserve this” — only this one. Write your first honest answer, even if it is rough.

What does this loss ask of me?

ONE TRUE AND USEFUL THING

Sit with what has happened until it tells you something true and useful about where to go next. Write the first of those things here.
