

The Walking Pages

Goes with this month's All In letter - For All In members

STEP 1: ONE HONEST SENTENCE

Write one sentence: where am I today? Nobody will read it but you.

Stuck? Try the three tests in this month's letter: the month test, the energy test and the friend test.

STEP 2: THE THREE COLUMNS

Keep is what you want to bring into your next chapter. Learn is what this setback has taught you. Leave is what you are ready to put down. If you are unsure where something goes, ask: would I want this in my next chapter?

Keep (what I bring with me)	Learn (what this taught me)	Leave (what I put down)

STEP 3: WHAT IT ADDS UP TO

What my three columns are telling me about my next chapter:

The one thing I most want to keep:

A short answer is still an answer. Write it down anyway.

STEP 4: THE TEN-MINUTE ACTION CARD

Print this page and cut out the card. Keep it where you will see it.

THIS MONTH'S TEN-MINUTE STEP

Finish one sentence and put it where I will see it every day.

Something I know now that I did not know before is:

Where I will put it:

STEP 5: THE MONTHLY TRACKER

Once a week, fill in one row. One line per box is enough.

WK	My honest sentence this week	One thing I learned	My ten-minute step
1
2
3
4

KEEP THIS CARD

Screenshot this card for your phone.

Looking back is not going backward.

It means I look for what is worth keeping, so I can take it with me into what comes next.

Setbacks don't get the last word.