

The Walking Pages

Goes with this month's All In letter - For All In members

STEP 1 - ONE HONEST SENTENCE

Write one sentence: where am I today? Nobody will read it but you.

Stuck? Use the three tests from this month's letter: the body test, the avoidance test, the out-loud test.

STEP 2 - THE TWO COLUMNS

Left column: what happened. Facts only - what a camera would have seen. Right column: what you tell yourself about it. If you're not sure which side something belongs on, ask: would a camera have recorded it?

What happened (facts only)	What I tell myself about it

STEP 3 - WHERE I STAND

What I am ready to accept:

What I am not ready to accept yet:

Not yet is an honest answer. Write it down anyway.

STEP 4 - THE TEN-MINUTE ACTION CARD

Print this page and cut out the card. Keep it where you will see it.

THIS MONTH'S TEN-MINUTE STEP

Pick one fact from my left column. Say it out loud to one person I trust.

The fact I will say:

The person I will tell:

STEP 5 - THE MONTHLY TRACKER

Once a week, fill in one row. One line per box is enough.

WK	My honest sentence this week	One thing I accepted	My ten-minute step
1
2
3
4

KEEP THIS CARD

Screenshot this card for your phone.

Accept does not mean approve.

It means I stop arguing with what has already happened, so my strength is free for what comes next.

Setbacks don't get the last word.